I see the trysting tree, where oft we met,

I long to hold you, dear, and fold you in these
The same old path that knew my laughter, 'till you arms of mine,

came to woo,

To tease and squeeze and
And told Love's old sweet

ARRAH WANNA

If not, you have missed a treat.

It is without doubt the greatest number ever published. We give above a little piece of the music of the two-step—it is also published as a song—the words are great. Be sure to ask for ARRAH-WANNA Song—also the instrumental arrangement—and you will be delighted with both, it is whistled, sung and played everywhere.
