Heavy on the Catsup

Mr. Lewis F. Muir, the composer of the Rob't. E. Lee, wrote this. It is the final best result of a One-Step, Turkey Trot, Two-Step.

Camp Meeting Band

The Jingle of Jingles

Absolutely New and Irresistible
"She's Dancing Her Heart Away"

Words by
L. WOLFE GILBERT

Music by KERRY MILLS

Valse lento con moto

Who is that beauty that's right over Melody seems to enchant her each there, Dancing with so much emotion, night, Healing a heart that was broken, Wonderful eyes and such beautiful hair, Do you think that Dancing just seems to make everything right, Grief that has

She's all devotion? Just look at that smile on her never been spoken. It's often that you heard them face, The truth is, it's much out of place, for say, "If you dance, the fiddler you pay?" for

CHORUS

She's only one of many Who's dancing her heart a-

She's Dancing &c. - 3 way, Each smile is a hidden tear-drop, She's acting like in a play, There's many a dancer dancing, Though she may seem happy and gay, Her heart it has yearned for a love that was spurned, She's dancing her heart away

She's Dancing &c. 3
What Would I Do Without You?

The prettiest of ballads and a little rag in it that takes it away from the old type.

You're the Fairest Little Daisy

Andrew Mack's Favorite Song

The Big Hit of His Repertoire