youngsters full of life and full of fun, And when they played to see the old stage rock-in' to and fro, And hear the bullets gather 'twas a sight to see, On every kid-eyes as they whis-teled merrily, And ev'en dear old birthday their old gran-dad used to call, And tell them stories gran-dad grew ex-cit-ed as could be, Again he lived those of the dear old west, He'd tell of Cus- ters good old days of yore, Once more mid scenes of last brave stand or of some roving hold-up band, But of dreadful strife he fought his way for love and life, As he all his tales this one they liked the best. did in good old days long gone before.

Chorus.

When I drove the stage from Denver town down to Frisco, by the sea, I was often chased by Indians_

When I Drove The Stage 4 Who tried to capture me, But my crack, crack,

But my crack, crack, and my gid-dy gid-dy yap, Brought me safe and sound you see,

From the far off town of Denver down to Frisco by the sea. When I sea.

The day dear is gone and I slumber deep, My earth has her maidens yet dear I know, You dream is all of you are the best of all The vision is

Last night 'twas of one I would always keep, Sweet-heart my love is true you that I murmured low, You hastened at my call
