The moon is all a-glow along the
Oh! come, my love, away, before the

Alamo, come on, my love, let's go tonight,
Just like your break of day, Oh! hurry, love, and don't delay,
Come, linger

Come, love, where the breeze is blowing,
Come, love, where the posies grow.

For when it's moon-light on the Alamo,

While the mandolins are softly playing.

"When You Play in the Game of Love"

The Greatest Song about the Greatest Game in the World

"Our next song!"—said Al Piantadosi and Joe Goodwin, authors of "That's How I Need You" (one of the few really great Ballad successes)—must be still greater.

This seemed like painting the lily. But that is exactly what this rising team of writers have done. "When You Play in the Game of Love" is one ballad in a thousand. As old as is the "Game of Love," never before have its smiles or sorrows been portrayed so naïvely, so ingeniously, or set to such heart-felt Arcadian-simple melody as in this latest ballad-hit, "When You Play in the Game of Love."

REFRAIN

Sometimes it's joy for the girl and boy, Then blue as the sky.

Skeeps up a love, Sometimes you're sad, Sometimes you're glad, When you play in the Game of Love.

"Kathlyn"

Hesitation WALTZ Valse-Boston

The "Movie" Sensation becomes the Waltz Sensation

Are you one of the hundreds of thousands who can hardly wait for next week to come, when at some moving picture theatre you are held spell-bound as Miss Williams unfolds the story of Selig's spectacular $140,000 serial Photodrama—"The Adventures of Kathlyn"?

We've dedicated a Waltz to Miss Williams. We've named it "Kathlyn." A waltz to be so named was to be a great waltz. It is. Miss Williams calls it "HER Waltz." As a HESITATION or VALSE BOSTON it has the Rhythm dancers are "hungry" for.
