TENNESSEE
I HEAR YOU CALLING ME

WORDS BY HAROLD A.
ROBE

MUSIC BY JEFF
GODFREY

INTRODUCED BY
AL. JOLSON
IN THE NEW YORK
WINTER GARDEN

EMPIRE MUSIC CO
JACK VON TILZER, M&R
148 WEST 45TH ST., N.Y.
Tennessee, I Hear You Calling Me

Words by HAROLD A. ROBE

Music by JEFF GODFREY

Moderato

Down where There's where

sweet mag-nol - ias bloom, I hear my old mam-my croon, all the year is June, There's where those red ros-es bloom,

By permission of Boosey & Co. proprietors of "I hear you calling me!"

Copyright MCMXIV by Empire Music Co., Jack Von Tilzer Mgr., 148 West 45th St. New York
International Copyright Secured
There she waits to take me by the hand
Mocking birds sing "Honey boy—come home
Wel-come me home to my dear old Dix- ie land;
Pine trees sigh and cry— for me,
you all can make us glad? Come friend
take a glide with me,
Old folks there would die— for me,
Hop on, take a ride with me, you'll be wel- come tote my lit- tle grip,
where my mam—my lives,
Back to Ten- nes- see,
Back in Ten- nes- see.

Oh Tennessee etc. 4
CHORUS

Oh Tennessee, I hear you calling me Yes Tennessee, I hear you calling me Sing on, ring on, Gee it sounds so grand, friends I'm on my way The B and

Oh Tennessee etc. 4
Oh, will soon be hauling me, So good-bye troubles fade away I'm going back to my Dixie land, Oh Tennessee, I hear you calling me. Oh Tennessee.

POPULAR SONG HITS

GOODBYE SWEETHEART GOODBYE

Written by ARTHUR J. LAMB

Arranged by ALBERT VON TILZER

Good Bye, Sweetheart, Good Bye.

An Old Fashioned Girlie.

The Song That Reaches Irish Hearts.

Written by RAYFLE COSTELLO

Music by ALBERT VON TILZER

Copyright 1919 by The New Music Co.

If your dealer cannot supply you with any of the above songs, we will, on receipt of 25c each, mail copies any where.

THE EMPIRE MUSIC COMPANY, Inc.

JACK VON TILZER, Mgr.

148 West 45th Street, New York