THAT WONDERFUL THING CALLED LOVE
LYRIC BY SCHUYLER GREENE & DARL MAC BOYLE
MUSIC BY OTTO MOTZAN

PHILIP BARTHOLOMAE PRESENTS
THE MUSICAL COMEDY

AT THE BALL

BOOK BY PHILIP BARTHOLOMAE

MUSIC BY SILVIO HEIN

T. B. HARMS
AND FRANCIS, DAY & HUNTER
NEW YORK AND JOE MORRIS' MUSIC CO.
N.Y.

VOCAL
1. Send Me My Love - 60c
2. My Little Queen Bee - 60c
3. Shadows - - - 60c
4. Knock, Knock, Knock, Nobody Home - - - 60c
5. You're a Peach and I'm a Plum - - - 60c
6. Gentle Moon - - - 60c
That Wonderful Thing Called Love

Words by SCHUYLER GREENE
and DARL MAC BOYLE

Music by OTTO MOTZAN

Marcia

Voice.

You'll never guess,
I've got the blues,

Copyright 1914 by Joe Morris Music Co 145 West 45th St New York.
The Publishers reserve the right to the use of this Music or Melody for Mechanical Instruments.
International Copyright Secured. All Rights Reserved. Albert & Sons, Australian Agents, Sydney.
no Honey you'll never guess, the thing in all this a-bout this ter-ri-ble news, it seems that ev'ry wide world I like the best. It's not a palace or gold, one is going to war. All though I've looked all around,

but Honey when you've been told _ there's only one thing I've found _

'Twill, that's set your mind at rest.

worth while fighting for.

That Wonderful etc. 4.
Chorus

It's something, everybody is sighing for,

It's something, everybody is crying for.

Oh! so hard to explain, but if you try it once you'll try it again.

That Wonderful, etc. a.
I would steal if I only could, something,
that is better than good. It's Ooh!
Oh! Oh! that wonderful thing called love.

It's, love.

That Wonderful, etc. 4.