Yes, and if I've argued the point with my brother Jock once, I've argued it sixty thousand times. But Jock just says, "Early to bed, early to rise, makes a man healthy and wise." Of course that was all right fifty years ago, but it doesn't suit me. I told Jock this mornin'—I said, "Listen to me, now: Early to bed, lie as long as ye can. Eat ham and eggs and ye'll soon be a man."

That's my plan. Of course Jock just laughed, and I just sang:
