Chorus.

You may dream of love 'mid the roses,
And wander the garden of dreams,
You may bask or live in the garden of love,
Where everything beautiful seems,

You may talk of moonlight and moonshine while

Arr. by L.A. Love.

The toil of the daytime was over,
Two lovers a man and a maid,

We both look away to the future,
Two fond hearts beating as one,

In taking a lover's long journey,
The path thro' the wild-flowers strayed,

We'll live in the land of contentment,
As happy as we have begun,
She spoke of the calm of the evening,
When trav'ling life together,
And what she would do for his sake,
He told of his hopes and the peace and true love we will live,
Now will you love honor and future, Then asked her this promise to make, cherish, I ask you your promise to give.

Chorus.

False tempo.

Now promise me, you'll ever be, The Queen of Home Sweet

The Queen of etc. 3
Home, 'Mid joy or care, thro' foul or fair, We'll meet things as they come, If dark the day love lights the way, No matter where we roam, Now will you reign, and long remain, The Queen of Home Sweet Home.
