Here's a little note that the lonesome fellow wrote Answering the note to the lonesome boy she wrote, Dearie, a little lonesome girl who might have worn a wedding gown.

I am waiting for some one to hook my wedding gown.

REFRAIN Andante

I never knew how much I loved you,

I never knew till you were gone,

I never knew - 4
I never knew that I would miss each kiss from your honey lips, honey mine, I swear and,

dear, I declare, I never knew that you would haunt me in all my dreams the way you do,

For all the world is dark and dreary, I'm weeping for you, dearie, That my heart would break I never knew.

I never knew

CHORUS.

Wonderful child... with your wonderful way... Oh, you've nothing to do... but Every time you are near... I have a feeling so queer... That I could fly to the sky... up above, Oh! Oh! You loveable, squeezeable,

Sit on my knees... Pleasable, teasa ble dove
