MAMMY JINNY'S JUBILEE

SHAKE YO' FEET

WORDS BY
L. WOLFE GILBERT

MUSIC BY
LEWIS F. MUIR
"Mammy Jinny's Jubilee"

Words by
L. WOLFE GILBERT

Music by
LEWIS F. MUIR

Tempo di Marziale

Tell me, brother, tell me what's this all about,
Brand new red bandanna, 'round Mammy's head.

Tell Voice

Everybody's happy, what is that shout?
Ole Mammy Jinny's in town.
You couldn't miss the color, it surely was red.
There she stood with a smile.

International Copyright Secured.
A dance and song.
Now my memory serves me and I'm feeling gay.

same door each year.
If you care for dancing and music and song.

Mammy Jinnys eighty-two today.
Put your glad rags on and come along.

CHORUS
Come on and shake your feet, oh honey, shake your feet.

This is Mammy Jinnys Day.

Just see that

Mammy Jinnys etc. 3
sweet birthday cake, It took ten people to bake

Hon-ey, count the can-dles, there's just eighty-two How'd you like to have some day, baked for you? Each time the door bell rings, a present some one brings,

Mam-my Jin-ny's Jub-i-lee Come on and -lee

Mammy Jinny's etc. 3