Percy Wenrich's Successor to his "Put On Your Old Gray Bonnet"

Kentucky Days.

Words by JACE MARLOWE.

CHORUS.

Kentucky Days Kentucky Days And your sweet Ken-

It's steal some cherry's from your fa - ther;

Who's always take the blame when their blame you, Kentuk-

Your Dad gave pimento too. I took one and that was

In those old Ken - tuck-y Days Ken - tuck-y Days.

Music by Percy Wenrich.

There's a certain party
Something seems to tell me
Some one seems to smile with a certain manner

Some time I'll be happy

And a certain style  There's a certain
With someone somewhere  Any lips won't charm in certain eyes of blue, please me. Any one won't do,

I am certainly enraptured Some-one is certain too.
Any place I don't want any, Any one but you.

Chorus:

Some-body's eyes Some-body's

Somebody's Eyes
sighs, Make me surmise, The love light lies, flies In those skies of gladness But I'm wise,

I realize, I'm going going gone Just for somebody's eyes Somebody's D.S.
