Moderato.

She wanted to roam so she left the old home,
The old people's hearts were sore,
She longed for the sights and the bright city lights
Where hundreds had gone before.

A year passes by, there's a tear in her eye,
Oh! what would she do if the old people knew,
She could not go back home now.
Her dear mother said when they went to the heart of the city, she went to the heart of the city.

Tenor I

In the heart of the city that has no heart That's where they meet and that's where they part, The current of vice had proved too strong So the poor little girlie just drifted along. No body cared if she lived or died, No body cared if she laughed or cried, She's just a lost sister and no body's missed her, She's there in the city where there's no pity... In the city that has no heart, city that has no heart.
