The Flower Garden Ball

Words by
WM JEROME

Music by JEAN SCHWARTZ

Allegro moderato

Spring-time gave a flower garden daffodils were gliding here and there

Every flower answered to the call Blue-bells sweetly ringing in the air

Roses dressed in robes of sparkling dew Hyacinths were dancing with delight tiny little home so cozy, just room enough for me and Rosie. Away from all the ice and snow, where the warm love breezes blow. We will live on love and kisses, Cupid, he will wash the dishes in a bungalow where the red, red roses grow. I grow.

wish you'd keep out of my dreams; Sweet-heart, I see that it wasn't to be, I cared for you, but you never loved me; So I wish you'd keep out of my dreams; Your face always haunts me, it
