CHORUS.

To Buffalo, Dear Buffalo,

Home-ward bound her sons will go; We'll pack our grip, For the cherished trip, And hit the trail from our Bungalow  We'll sound our praise forever more,  To our city on Lake Erie's shore;  And show the rest, that she is best,  Our dear old

Buffalo,  To lo.
Try this on your Piano.
This is the chorus of our latest and prettiest serenade.

CHORUS.

Moon-flower, Moon-flower, Sweet-est of them all.

Tell me will you answer To the night birds call?

May I, may I, take you, To cherish hour by hour?

May I, may I, have you, For my own Moon flower?
