spoon-ing, to listen to our ardent coo-ing, So here be-crying, to think that other eyes were spy-ing; But if you neath the ev'ning star, I'll tell you just how sweet you say we're quite alone I'll let you have a kiss, just are. 1.2. Hush, not a sound! There's none a-round to interrupt our joy profound.

At last we are alone, dear, you and I, dear. No one

No eyes but just our own, dear. And the little birds that fly above. No peeping chap-
