Ported slowly each their way to go. The form is bent, and weaker grows the will. A

Promises there given, meant joy in years to come, To scene once more arises, the years gone by return, when both, the maid and youth upon that day. The dew upon the flowers like falling gain we're walking down life's silver stream. A sweet and loving voice upon the tears, the rising sun then soon did drive away. Air brings joy to cheer me in my last ing dream.
