I hear you
calling me,
No use to sigh,
Stop your worrying, I'll be hurrying, To you bye and
night ingale,
Sing ing his song,
To his lady love, In her nest above, It won't be so

Oh it's great to be There's a land that is great and be something in the eyes of the world; You progregard! I can see it ev'ry night in my dreams, For the claim when a name to the eyes of all the world is unseen, here to me, comes the fragrance of its flow'res, so it honeymoon, to that far enchanted Isle.

Chorus.

The eyes of the world, Won’t you take me from the eyes of the world?

The Eyes Of The World, 8
You know that I want to be, want to be free;

Take me to a lonely island far o'er the sea. We can live there a-lone.

We can start a little kingdom of our own, Where we can love all the day, far far a-way, Far from the eyes of the world.– The world.–

JUST A LITTLE BIT OF GREEN

Words by JEFF. BRANEN.

Music by ARTHUR LANGE.

Chorus
Just a little bit of green in the spring-time, Makes the old world young and gay, Just a little bit of green in the in-side pock-et.Makes you wel-come as the flow'rs in May,

Old Red, White and Blue, I've been might-y true to you, You're the grand-est flag that I have ever seen, But I think I'd love you just a little bet-ter if you on-ly had a little bit of green, Just a green.
