night while at a dance—I met a boy by chance—He other chap I met—never shall I forget—He asked if I would let him call on me—Of was so handsome and so debonair—The course I answered "Yes," because I must confess, I way he ordered wine, When we sat down to dine, 'Twas never had a beau before you see, And I plain to see he was a millionaire, I when he called I learned to love him so, He always loved to have his company, He used to say such pretty things you know.

used to make it worth my while you see.
Chorus

Ev'ry night he took me out a-walking Ev'ry night he took me out a-driving His Ev'ry night to please me he would try motor car was always at my door

Ev'ry night he kissed me in the hallway Ev'ry night he brought me lovely flowers And took an hour or two to say goodbye.

lots of other things, yes, by the score

Every Night. 4
Every night he spent a pleasant evening
And
Every night he acted like a sweetheart

That was all he spent, just so to speak
And
Never felt so happy in my life
And

When he asked "when we're to wed" I answered Perhaps the second
Just as I thought we were going to marry
He went and introduced

Thursday of next week.
"week."
Duced me to his wife.
wife.
