"DIANE OF THE GREEN VAN"

Lyric by J.WILL CALLAHAN

Music by F. HENRI KLiCKMANN

Dedicated to Miss Leona Dalrymple

Moderato (not fast)       Vamp

Now the

'sil-v'ry moon is beam-ing         As I watch be-side the froz-en north we've wan-dered         To the land where palm trees trail,                                         O-ver there, my love, you're grow,                                          Ev-er thro' the night I've dream-ing                                      In a star-lit, wood-land pon-dered                                    vale; Just be-cause I love you so;

Your heart has heard the wild bird calling
And answered to its plaintive plea.
The breezes come from o'er the ocean
And sweep across the everglade.

Tho' you've not confessed it, somehow Can't you hear them singing, love's own message bringing.

I have guessed it; some day you'll belong to me.
Just to you, my gipsy maid?

Slumber on, my wildwood flower,
Sweetly sleep and dream of Diane.
love,
There within your perfumed bower, Beneath the stars above;
While I count each weary hour, All the future days I'll plan.
Of a time soon to be When you'll give your heart to me, My Diane of the green van.
