There's a tiny black speck way out on the sea. There's a big black speck on the pier. He's been known to be late before, I've missed yon-der boat.

Oh, sup-pos-in' that he had big black speck is strain-in' her eyes. And pray-in' for the counted ev'-ry min-ute and hour. I've wait-ed till I

Little one to draw near, It's drawing closer, closer

He couldn't wait any more. The gang-plank's lowered, see 'em to the pier. It's a boat that brings her, honey, dear.

Rush a shore. There's my honey now, I'll weep no more.

No use to hold her, no use to scold

Good-bye to sadness, welcome to glad.

She wants the world to hear her singing!

What are your voices for but singing!

The Good Ship etc. 4
CHORUS

Its the good ship Mary Ann__ Bring-ing back__

my lov-in' man__, Step a-side and let me

meet him, let me greet him! Lord-y,

I could eat him! Bless the captain,

The Good Ship etc -4.
bless that crew, Bless the dear old Missisippi, too!

For bringing back my lovin' man, On the good ship Mary Ann. Bless the good ship

Mary Ann! Mary Ann!
