I'm Goin' Home to Mobile

(On the Morgan Line)

Words and Music by

Glen C. Leap

Successfully Featured By

Hendricks & Padula

Published by

Glen C. Leap

145 W. 46th St. New York
I'm Goin' Home To Mobile
(On The Morgan Line.)

Words and Music
By GLENN' C. LEAP.

Allegro.

Oh! I'm in a hurry,
Umm, I'm glad I'm goin',

Till ready.

in an awful hurry,
Yes, I'm glad I'm goin',

My boat leaves right away;
Say, captain, hustle yourself,

Did I buy a ticket?
Yes, I bought a ticket,

Mister, start your engine,
Move your little engine,
Paid my fare one way,
I must get there myself,

Don’t you try to stop me,
Nothing’s goin’ to stop me,

Tell me, Is signal to the crew, sir,
Tell them we’re read-y to start;

Gee I’m all excited,
Hon’ I’m sure de-light-ed,

Can’t you see I’m anxious,
Gettin’ aw-ful anxious,

Light-ed, Believe me when I say:
Pull up that plank, de-part.
Chorus.

I'm go-in' home to Mobile on the Morgan line,

Oh, mister captain, put her out on time,

Buddy, ain't that fine,

There'll be a celebration, at my destination. Friends will greet me with a happy smile,

I'm Going Home To Mobile.
Folks from miles around; Captain, captain, won't you hurry, please, Mister, mister, set my heart at ease, On a steamer bound for Mobile town, I am on my way, goodbye. I'm goin' bye.

TRY THIS ON YOUR PIANO

In The Shadow Of The Pines.
(I'll Wait For You.)

Lyric & Music by GLENN C. LEAP.

Refrain.

In the shadow of the pines, I'll wait for you, Just you, Just to look into your dreamy eyes so blue, true blue, Just to tell you sweetheart mine Of my love for you divine, In the