"The Ukulele Lady"

I can tell by
When the things that almost every thing you do,

you have planned go back on you,

That our romance is
I wonder what you'll through.

If it's true that you and I must part some day,

May be then you'll think of happy days we knew,

Listen while I say, dear.
Days when skies were blue, dear.

CHORUS
Who'll be the one, In your heart when I'm gone? Who will share each sigh and care? Who'll take my place when you need sympathy? That's the time you'll think of me.

Who'll Be The One? 3
When nights are long and dreams are ended,
I wonder who'll know the charms of your wonderful arms? Tell me who,
Who'll be the one?

Who'll Be The One? s
Could I?

Chorus

Could I care for that baby?
Could I care for those boys in town?
I could fill her heart with song
Could I?

Music by
MILTON AGER

Chorus

She got this and she got that;
She got six moons in her ears;
She knows her onions.
