The same old moon that shines upon the river immortalized by Stephen C. BALLAD

Moderato

There is a dream for ev'ry
'Twas years ago away out dream-er, There is a song for ev'ry bird, There is a scheme for ev'ry yon-der, That I was happy as could be. In mem'ry's dream I pause to schem-er, And there's a meaning for each word; There is a won-der, Just as a vision comes to me; A land of place for every flower, There is a place for every tree, A place for love, a life of sunshine, A cosy home upon a hill, I see my ev'ry thing and ev'ry one on earth, And there's just one place for me, sweet-heart there who promised to be mine, And I know some day she will.

CHORUS
Tenderly

When I'm lonely For one thing only, My soul calls out for the West, Heaven framed it, An Angel named it The great, great Golden West:

There I'll build my castle in the air, For the one who's waiting for me there, So lonesome, My heart burns for, Just aches and yearns for lit-tle home away out West. West.

Sweetest Lullaby Song Ever Written

"SUNNY HONEY BOY"

BY JACK CADDIGAN AND 'CHICK' STORY

Do you remember that great song of the war called "The Rose of No Man's Land"? 'Twas a tribute to the Angel of Mercy who ministered to our wounded and dying soldiers—the Red Cross Nurse. Do you remember that other tremendous war song "Salvation Lassie of Mine"? Well, the writers of these two remarkable songs have just given to the world their masterpiece—"Mammy's Sunny Honey Boy." This song will take you back on the wings of memory to childhood's days. It's music will paint for you in fancy the face of the world's sweetheart—MOTHER!

CHORUS

Close your eyes and go to Bye-lo, Mammy's little Sunny Honey Boy; Ramble down to Blanket Town, Your
