(Chorus) When I take my va-ca-tion in heav-en What a won-der-ful time that will be.

Where they rest from their cares and their wor-ries What a won-der-ful time that must be
Hear-ing con-cer ts by the heav-en-ly cho-rus And the smiles of the an-gels I'll see.

But it seems not my lot to be like them I must toil thru the heat and the cold
Sitt-ing down on the banks of the riv-er Neath the shade of the ev-ver-green tree.

Seek-ing out the lost sheep on the moun-tains Bring-ing wan-der-ers back to the fold
I shall rest from my bur-dens for ev-er Won't you take your va-ca-tion with me.
