I don't sup- pose that In dreams my an- gel a - ny one can be as sad as I I sit a - lone and dream of home and Moth-er takes me back to Ba - bys days Dear old Aunt Chloe who loved me so and oft - en won-der why I nev - er am con - tent - ed no mat - ter where I Dad's old fash - ioned ways And then they scene it chan - ges the Vil - lage Church I go see My heart just yearns for one sweet girl who loves but me I know.

A bash - full boy a dear sweet girl whos wait - ing pa - tient - ly.

Chorus

Vir-gi-nia Dare my heart for you is pin - ing The dark-est clouds must have their sil-ver lin - ing Al though'tis years since first our lips they met it lin-gers yet

- I can't for get - Oth-er's smiles at times they seem to cheer me Oh how I'll long dear once to have you near me all my wildoats to have sown Then re-turn-ing home dear to wed you fair Vir-gi - nia Dare - - - - - Vir-gi-nia Dare - - - - -
