TI-O-SAN.
An Oriental Love Song.
FOX TROT.
By LOU TRAVELLER
and L. CLAIR CASE.

In a garden,
Far away 'mid

in Japan,
I met a little girl called Ti-O-San.

Copyright MCMXX by Lou Traveller & L. C. Case. 840 South Flower St., Los Angeles, Cal.
International Copyright Secured.
learned to love her in an Oriental way. This girl from old Japan seem to hear her whispers on each gentle breeze. She's pleading tenderly.

In this garden by the yellow sea I can see her sipping tea. And I know she's waiting patiently Oriental moon, I'll keep the promise to her ly for me. This pretty little Japanese tune.

CHORUS.

Ti-o-san.

My heart is calling

Night and day

Ti-o-san. 3.
Southern seas bring memories I'm going back to my Ti-o-san.

1 San. 2 San.

Ti-o-san. 4.
A Wonderful New Waltz Ballad

Wandering Song

Words and Music by
L. CLAIR CASE and LEONARD STEVENS.

CHORUS. a tempe.

Ev-er wand'ring to-night 'neath the moon-beams, Ev-er plan-ning our sweet

June dreams— Love en-thral-ling, to your heart is call-ing— Can't you hear love's old sweet song— Sing-ing to you dear, you a-lone— 'long the

Copyright MCMXX by L. C. Case,
840 South Flower Street, Los Angeles, Cal.

All Rights Reserved.

FOR SALE BY ALL DEALERS