Sons of the Motherland.

Britain awake! The word is war!
The foe flings down his braggart glove,
And hark! our Empire's every shore
Cries out to her in loyal love—
"Behold us, knit in one array
"With you, your brother-Britons free
"Who with their Motherland at bay
"Join heart and hand across the sea!"
We are at one with Britain's aim
One folk to give her one fond name.

Refrain: Motherland! Motherland! See thy sons at thy right hand,
Blood of Britain,—strong defenders,—let who will defy!
One for thee! All for thee! Thine to fight or fall for thee,
Children of the Motherland whose name shall never die!

While Britain's stalwart sons at home
Their manhood in her ranks enrol,
Each Briton far across the foam
Bears witness to as valiant soul,
More stirring than all beat of drums,
"We're with you to our latest man,
"Our utmost coin!" their message comes—
"To fight and fall in Freedom's van!"
We stand as one for Britain's fame!
One folk to give her one fond name.

Refrain: Motherland! etc:

Shouts! for our blood of East and West!
Our splendid kindred from afar,
Whose grit and comradeship attest
How full their faith in Britain's star!
Our brothers!—Let the World take heed
We are one People tried and true,
And Britain in her hour of need
Is Motherland her Empire through.
That stands as one for Britain's fame!
One folk to give her one fond name.

Refrain: Motherland! etc:
