That Dramatic Rag.

Words and Music by YOUNG, RUBY & GLOGAU.

Misterioso.

Play begun, Act number one, (sh) Lovers on the scene, Everything serene,
Music stops, The villain drops, (cries) From an aeroplane, To the girl again,

Place a street, Two sweethearts meet, Now comes the villain of the play, (ha ha) He Gags her first, To do her worst, Up in the sawmill on the hill, (ha) The quickly steals the girl away, Hear the hero say, He will win the day, maid is laid beneath the blade, Can not she be saved, From this man depraved, Villain holds the girl at bay, Till he hears somebody play;

Look, somebody cries, "I will," Music breaks the night so still.

CHORUS.
What's that! What's that!
That dramatic rag, Something queer in my ear Tells me that I'm hearing

Ha-Ha, Ha--Ha,
that dramatic rag, She defies all his lies, See the villain sneering,

Hear my plea, 'Tis help I need, I'm gone complete From that music sweet. Help, save me, That dramatic rag.

That harmonious drag, Then the hero with his cello Turns out to be the fellow, Who's playing that mel-low dramatic rag.
