Allegretto

There are lots of places where I'd like to be,
And many, many sights that I would surely like to see;
But the greatest thing in all the world to give a man a thrill
Is surely going to happen when the Yanks get Kaiser Bill.

There's Sousa's band will be right there to lead that dance,
"The Stars and Stripes Forever" will be played for Willie's prance.
Six Brown Brothers will fill the air with their big saxophones,
Imagine William's feelings when he hears their pleading tones.

And I'd sure like to be there to feel the dance till they get thro';
And they'll make him like it, too.

CHORUS

When the Kaiser does the goose-step to a good old American rag, They'll play it jerky and make

Bill "walk turkey" and salute our grand old flag. He'll be wiser when he two-steps to the songs of Yankee-land Or fox-trots to a good old Dixie tune (make it soon, make it soon) There'll be a jazz band from Dixie. And Bill won't dare say "Nix-ie" When the Yankees say, "Come, William, dance that drag!" Alexander's band from Tennessee Will be there to play the music for the Jubilee When the Kaiser does the goose-step to a good old American rag. When the rag.
