REFRAIN Brightly

There's a typical Tipperary, A typical Dublin Bay, A

A typical County Kerry in the good old U. S. A. Although you're many miles from where the Sham-rocks grow

You'll find an Irishman no matter where you go. There are typical Irish colleens with typical Irish ways. There's a bit of Blarney, too. From way out Frisco to New York, they walk and they talk just like in Cork. You'd think that you were home in Ireland. There's a Ireland.

Dreamily
Stars shine high above,
In this hour of love,

Here'sneath the starlight I hear your voice a whispering, Telling again that you love me!

Every little star shining from afar,

Matched in the light that in your eyes is beaming—Washington
