When That Harvest Moon Is Shining
(I Wanna Go Home!)

Words and Music by
GEORGE A. STEVENS

Not fast

[Music notation]

Under the harvest moon in the busy, busy town,
I think about my country home in harvest time,

And oh! I picture the moonlight nights with those I love so dear; And all the time I think of them I wish they were near. I wonder if I'll ever see again, At harvest time, our cottage down the lane,

Then I just sigh for those times with my old folks upon the farm, Where in the evening everything was peaceful and calm. Goodbye, old busy town, you're not for me! I'm going back that dear old place to see!

When that harvest moon is shining, Oh! oh! I wanna go home, Oh! oh! I wanna go home!

Harvest moon, you bring to my mind, Mum and daddy and the pony Neddy And the home I left behind.

Off to market every Saturday morn, With our old pony Ned, I used to roam, Singing on the journey: Gee up Neddy to the fair, what'll we get when we get there? When that harvest moon is shining.

Oh! oh! I wanna go home! I wanna go home! home!
