When The Autumn Leaves Begin To Fall

Lyric by NEVille FLEeson
Music by ALBERT VON TILZER

REFRAIN (With feeling)

I'll come back when the leaves begin to fall
To the one that I love the best of all Your voice I hear,
Whispering, "Dear, when you're away every day's a year"
Oh! how bright-ly the autumn sun will shine
On the day I make you

Hi-ram Per-kin, got tired of work-in'
Hi-ram gig-gled each time she wig-gled

So he wan-dered down to see the cir-cus in the town
Followed her a-round un-til the cir-cus left the town

Saw the an-i-mals, and the can-ni-bals when they came on view Told the friends he knew he was go-ing to sell his farm next day Then he flirted with a wil, wil, wild woman, and they got real friend-ly too. When They thought he was go-ing cra-zy so they called the doc-tor right a-way. The Hi-ram got back home, the folks all gath-ered by his side. They doc-tor felt his head and said There's some thing wrong in-side. I said, "Where were you what did you see?" And Hi-ram re-plied.

can't diag'-nose it what can it be?" and Hi-ram re-plied.

CHORUS

Oh! Geel say gee, you ought to see my Gee Gee, From the Fi-ji Isle Gosh Gee, say Gee, you ought to be with Gee Gee She can make you smile Rings in-side her nose

Oh Geel Say Geel You Ought To See 3
Bells up on her toes—And I'm here to tell you that she's some high kicker,

Her kick is like the kick in home made liquor. She's got a lingo as funny as By Jingo, you know what I mean And she does a twister much better than her sister, silly Chili Bean

Over here, over there, she's a little bit bare. So she wears a lot of leaves to protect her from the air

Oh! Gee, say gee, you ought to see my Gee Gee, From the Fiji Isle.

Oh Gee! Say Gee! You Ought To See 3

I Used To Love You But It's All Over Now

CHORUS Slow march tempo (with feeling)

I used to love you, but it's all over. All over now. You know it's all over now, that you threw me down you shouldn't let that kind of story go 'round. For you've had your chance, and now it's all over, I'll get along somehow. There's little

But
