Music by MONTE CARLO and ALMA M. SANDERS.

Andante moderato.

Sure if I had the wings of a swallow,
I would
In the evening, when shadows are falling, Round the travel far over the sea, Then a rocky ould road I would ould door without any key, There's a voice in my dreams ever follow,

To a spot that is Heaven to me.
When the calling,

There are eyes ever watching for me;
There is

sun goes to rest,
'way down in the west,
Then I'll

some-one I bless with true tenderness,
And her

build such a nest, in the place I love best:
lips I'll caress, when I bring happiness:

poco ritard
In that dear little town in the old County Down, It will linger way down in my heart, Tho' it never was grand, it is my fairy land, Just a wonderful world set a part. Oh, my Ireland of dreams, you are with me, it seems, And I care not for fame, or renown, black sheep of old, I'll come back to the fold, Little town, in the ould County Down! In the Down!
