IN DADDY’S ARMS

Words and Music by
MATTHEW OTT

The plans we made, All seem to fade, And children soon forget

The boy you raised and loudly praised, Oft brings a sad regret

When you feel blue, He’d softly Coo, And in your arms he’d creep

Again you see him on your knee, As you lulled him to sleep.

CHORUS

Sleep tight, my baby, Hide your little head on Daddy's

(your Son-ny)

breast    Sleep tight and maybe

(your hon-ey)

You will soon be in the land of rest Sand-man is com-ing,

Close to me you're safe from all alarm You're my joy

Baby-boy, When you rest in Daddy's arms.
