Moderato.

Till ready.

1. You of-ten hear folks sing a-bout the pale moon-light, A-

2. In days of old when Knights so bold went out to woo a bout two lov-ers spoon-ing while the stars shine bright; When speak-ing of the night, they say it's maid-en fair, they'd do or dare, for love that's true, They real-ly nev-er knew of such a just di- vine, But you sel-dom hear them speak a-bout the bright sun-shine. Now, it thing as fear, They'd fight with all their might for those they lov'd so dear. Now, seems that moons were made for loons to sit at night and love and spoon, It done declare that they don't care if girls are true or on the square, But kind of makes the heart grow light and glad; But if the night is dark and dreary,

I just can't believe though, that is true; For, if your sweetheart says she'll meet you,

Love grows lonesome, cold and weary. It seems to make the whole world sad.
In the twilight she will greet you, You're lonesome then the whole day through.

CHORUS.

But when the moon shines, everybody's happy. When the moon shines,

Everybody's happy.

every girl and chap-pie Thro' the park go stroll-ing on a prom-e-nade; The lad-die tell-ing love-tales to the pret-ty maid. For when the moon shines, ev-ry-bo-dy knows that is the time to love and spoon. But, if you have no girl, pray tell me, What good is the moon. But when the moon.

Everybody's happy.
