Moderato.

3. The President while traveling, once came to Dixie-

1. Old Jasper Green, the deacon of a church down South Car-

2. The women's Christian temperance union met last Tuesday

land

The folks they flocked for miles around, to

'line,

night

Aunt Mandy said if she could join that shake him by the hand; Aunt Mandy she pushed long 'bout eating time

she'd feel out of sight

The other day while They wrote Aunt Mandy through the crowd and said "who can it be? Why all the folks are on the street he met Aunt Mandy Lou And said "Some-time to-tell-ing her that "We ac-cept your hand, We al-so think a cheer-in' more than for our Book-er T;"
The
mor-row I'm gwine to call on you." She meet-ing now at your house would be grand." Aunt

Pres-i-dent said, "I may call on all be-fore I go;" Aunt said "Call round most an-y day it makes no dif-fer-ence, But Mandy said "You're just as wel-come as the flow'rs in May, But

Mandy said, "be-fore you call at my house you must know:" these few words I've got to say right here in self de-fence:" as the food is so high now these words I'm forced to say:"
Chorus. \textit{(slow)}

Come after breakfast, bring long your lunch and leave for supper time. If you do that, I'm positive that I will treat you fine; For ev'ry body's welcome at my house whether in rain or shine, if they come after breakfast bring long their lunch and leave for supper time.
