Allegretto.

'Bout the time the sand-man
I gave him his nick-name 'Cause he has a Jack O' Lantern
Sprinkles all the star-dust in the sky
When the whispering breezes sing the song of hush-a-bye

He's so bright and shining
You can see his grin a mile Then I'm sort of wait-ing Just to hear the whis-tries cheer-ful sound beau-ty Looks an aw-ful lot like Sun-ny Jim.

My hearts pal-pi-ta-ting When Jack O'Lan-tern comes a-round
Dont care what he looks like If he will take me out with him.

Chorus.
You're my jol-ly old Jack O'Lan-tern And I love the mer-ry twinkle in your eye. Tho' you're yel-low You chase the blues; You're the fellow that I will choose. Every night time will be the right time To be spooning underneath the silver moon.

WHISTLE.

If you whistle I'll be there. With my whistle I'll be there.

Jack O'Lantern coon. You're my coon.
