Always Good
Sing Kate, Sing

By BENJ HAPGOOD BURT

Miss Katie O' Shane was a plain looking dame, Who When Kate had a beau she would turn the gas low, And One day they told Kate it was getting so late, To sang what is known as soprano, She hadn't a chance any start in to beat the piano, And when she would sing about grab the first man she could find. So she looked around until man to entrance, Unless she was at the piano. She'd love in the spring, He'd say what a love-ly soprano. Her one day she found A man who was totally blind. She pass'd thirty-four and a little bit more, So when a young voice was so loud there would soon be a crowd Of neighbors, out had him dead right, but he got back his sight. And then as he man came to call, Her father and mother would side of the gate, And when she'd begin every flew through the gate, A parrot next door, who had nudge one another, And whisper to Kate in the hall. one would start in, And shout through the windows at Kate. heard her before, In sympathy sang unto Kate.

CHORUS.
Sing, Kate, sing; Sing about lovers and love in the

Sing Kate, Sing. 3
Spring, Sing, Kate, sing,
Don't let him go till he buys you a ring.
Won't you please sing something, you're thirty-five in the Spring.
Get a gait on you Kate, or you'll wait till too late.

So for Heaven's sake sing.
