Marcia

New faces come and go
New voices soft and low, Eyes that with Frauleins are coy and fair Dutch girls are debonnaire, French girls are

love-light glow,
chic and rare,
No matter where you stray You'll

meet some roughish lay thet-ic eyes will glow from Loves own and with the land divine love-light shine
Sad
Sweet

are the eyes that grieve Deep are the sighs that heave,
But
girls are all the way from London to Bombay,
But

you may well believe, You'll never find a

hear me when I say, You'll never find a

girl who can set your heart a whirl
Like that Yankee

girl who can set your heart a whirl
Like that Yankee

girl of mine.

The Yankee Girl.
REFRAIN

Yank-ee girl  you are a vision bright,

Yank-ee girl  you haunt my dreams at night,

Yank-ee girl  no maids are quite so fair,

An-y-thing  for you I'd dare.

The Yankee Girl.
Yan-kee girl — you are a peach, a pearl,

All the love I have is true — You're the real red, white and blue, I could live and die for you, for you my Yan-kee girl.

The Yankee Girl.
