Peeping Through

The Knot Hole

In Papa's Wooden Leg

Price 25¢

Classical Idiocy
In 3 Flats
By Harry Tyler

Published by Ambassador Company
Gorham, N.Y.
Peeping Through the Knothole
In Papa's Wooden Leg
A Sub-Classical Idiocy in 3 Flats

HARRY L. TYLER

1. Moth-er made a cake one day, Just-
2. Since the day Pa dropped that cake, Sis- ter

after she was wed;
has to watch the door;

light e-nough, But it baked as hard as comp'-ny knock And the peg-leg on the Copyright 1928 by Harry L. Tyler lead, I say, It baked as hard as lead.

floor, I say, The peg-leg on the floor.

Pa, he tried to take a bite; He thought 'twas fit to
to Brother's playing baseball now, He has great luck at
to eat.

to
His false teeth slipped, he bit his lip, And the
to that.

He never fails to hit the ball. Pa's cake fell on his feet, I say, his feet, I say, The

to
to peg-leg is his bat, I say, his bat, I say, Pa's

to

Papa's Wooden Leg. 3
cake fell on his feet.
peg-leg is his bat.

Doctor came with Oh, the fun we saws and things And a big blood-catching trough:

have at night When Pa has gone to bed;

"I won't disturb your right leg, John, But your left leg must come bang his leg a-round the house. The noise would raise the off, I say, come off, I say, Your left leg must come off?"

dead, I say, the dead, I say, The noise would raise the dead.
Peep-ing thro' the knot-hole in Pa-pa's wood-en leg.

Peep-ing, peep-ing, peep-ing all the day; We are

Peep-ing, peep-ing thro' Pa-pa's wood-en leg;

Peep-ing thro' his wood-en leg;

Oh, what jol-ly sport it is! Peep-ing thro' the knot-hole in peeping thro' the knothole in his leg, his leg. Peep-ing thro' our-

Peep-ing, his leg. Peep-ing, peep-ing thro'

Oh, what jol-ly sport it is! Peep-ing thro' his Papa's wooden leg! a tempo

The knothole.

Papa's wooden leg!

The knothole.

Papa's wooden leg!

The knothole.

wooden leg! a tempo

The knothole.

PEG-LEG DANCE

D. S. for 2d verse