A Soldier's Love!

Lyric by HENRY BLOSSOM.

Music by VICTOR HERBERT.

Andante.

Piano.

Once a little

soldier,—little wooden soldier, In a little

Punch and Judy show! Loved a little dancer.
Dainty little dancer, in a little ballet gown you know. But he could not tell her, Never could he tell her, That to her he'd lost his soldier's heart; For by means of strings and other cruel things, They seemed to be forever kept a-

Tempo di Valse lento, a tempo.

part... Yet he loved her so madly, He'd die for her gladly, And softly, sadly he would sigh: "If she only knew that to her I am true, I am sure that to my love her heart would fondly reply. But alas! It was fated, They never should be mates. His soul was filled with vain regrets! But seldom 'e'en mortals may enter the portals Of love, and so it is with Marionettes.
