Springtime is Lovin' Time

by

Lillian Pool Specht.

Published by
Chicago Music Company,
CHICAGO
"SPRING-TIME is LOVIN'-TIME"

Words & Music
by LILLIAN POOLE SPECHT.

Week ago I quarreled with my Honey Lu.
Moon kept on sailing in the starry sky,

Wandered round, I didn't know what else to do,
Turned to go past Lulu's, when I heard a sigh.

Copyright, MCMVIII, by Lillian Poole Specht.
Ran upon a couple spooning 'neath a tree,
Seemed that I could hear someone a-calling me,

Made me kind of lonesome thought of Lu and me.
Heard a step behind me and I turned to see.

Turned a corner thought that I'd get out of sight,
Knew it was my baby and I held her tight.

Saw another couple in the bright moonlight.
Proved to her I loved her and my way was right,

Spring-time is - A
Ev'ry time I dodged to try to get away,
Sauntered off together 'neath the stars above.

Met another couple and they seemed to say:
All the world looks rosy when a man's in love.

CHORUS. Slowly

"Spring-time is lovin' time for all creation, Moon-nights just fill your heart with sweet elation. Even birds are mate-ing in the Spring-time is - 4

trees a - bove  Cant go an - y where but you hear, love, love, love,  In lone - ly.  I could - n't stand to live like this, The whole world revolves u - p - on my Lu - lu's kiss. I guess I feel more lone - ly on such nights because, Spring-time is lov - in' time. time.

Spring - time is - 4
NEW ONES THAT ARE UP-TO-DATE

Junetime
A Great Summer Song

My Girl of Long Ago

No Man's Land

Above pieces by
JNO. J. SOURWINE

Arranged by
FRED ERICKSON

Author of the celebrated

Ideal Two-Step