Sweet Girl Of My Dreams.

By Chauncey Olcott and Daniel J. Sullivan.

To Margaret.

Valse lento.

O'er yonder where lilacs so
The rose that is blooming to-

Fair day
Scent the air
Light and gay
Sweetly there

By the way

I was weary and so worn from care
That I

By the morrow may wither away
Leaving
lay down to rest midst that fragrance so rare
'Twas then of a naught on its stem but a sign of decay But the love that I'd maiden I dreamed, Sweetly dreamed And it give dear to you Will be true Eyes of seemed That at last my poor heart was redeemed blue It will blossom in love's brightest hue

While the stars and the moon brightly gleamed. Oh! sweet And flourish in life's golden dew.
REFRAIN. (Very slowly with expression.)

a tempo.

girl of my dreams you have beauty so rare. Cheeks that resemble the roses so fair, Your eyes love, sparkle your smile brightly beams. To you I'm singing sweet girl of my dreams, To you I'm singing sweet girl of my dreams.
