from his prayer-book Jim brought forth, a picture, old and worn: "This gift to me, dear Jim!" said she: "is worth its weight in gold."

sim-ple Christ-mas gift," said he: "re-calls our wed-ding morn?"

brings us back as sweet-hearts, dear! as in the days of old."

Chorus.
Molto espressivo.

"When we sat to-geth-er for that pic-ure Mame!"
Didn't I feel proud to know you took my name;

That's the day, your heart I won, that's the day, our lives begun,

When the parson said the words that made us one.
