HENRY LODGE

What do you think of me,
I've got an invitation,
Where do you think I'll be?

down by the railroad station,
Who do you think I'll see,
Back from a long vacation,

Oh, boy, oh, boy,
There will be trouble and joy,
How do you think she'll look the gal that I admire, handsome as in a book, her hair as red as fire

Many a time she shook me in her wild desire, say,

/CHORUS/

That red-head gal she's got me worried, That red-head gal makes me feel blue, I had a brunette and a blonde,

Of both of them I was very fond, But since she came, I'm not the same, For Kissing her shadow on the wall, Hot lips she's got, a beauty spot, And She's got me bottled in bond, That redhead gal

Other things that made me fall, That redhead gal
She makes me tired ed I'm in her spell, I'm in her spell,
She makes me tired ed I'm in her spell, I'm in her spell,

She shakes a pair of wicked eyes,
Last week she went and died her hair,
She stands up,
Her disposition is still there,
That redhead gal just can't be true
That redhead gal just can't be true
That redhead gal
That redhead gal
