The First Waltz
(Owns To Me)

Words by
BILLY CURTIS

Music by
J. RUSSEL ROBINSON

Valse moderato

Don't forget the first waltz, That belongs to me,

You can give the rest away, Give them all to whom you may.

Waltzes are for sweethearts, And they'll always be;

That Tacoma Home O' Mine

Music by
VIOLINSKY

You know the reason why I'm lonely,
I'm glad the trip will soon be over,
I got a letter from the old folks,
And still I know I won't be dreary,
I've got a longing for my hometown,
The little place I'm wild about.

You know the reason why I'm blue,
I know I'll never sleep a wink.
And they are feeling lonely, too.
I'm gonna stay awake and think.
About the home-stead in the morning,
That little place where I can rest.
I'll feel very extraordinary, when my train pulls out.
I'll feel very, very, very merry, when my train starts West.

Chorus

All a-board, I thank the Lord, I'm going home to that Tacoma home o'mine.
I just dropped the folks a line, To say that train o'mine, will rattle past Seattle, And I'll bet that I will get a lot of everything that

I've been longing for, I'll eat oodles of my ma's noodle, She hides em'thind the pantry door. Engin-cer, can't you hear, "feed her coal," let her roll;

Let us cov-er lots of ground. Got my fare, par-lor chair, ev-ry-thing like a king;

'Cause you know I'm home-ward bound. I'm long-ing for my home, what's more I love the apple trees, the ones I used to climb; And I'll take home a kiss to my Ta-coma Miss in that Ta-coma home o' mine. All a-
