AMERICA'S LATEST AND GREATEST HIT

You’ll Want Me Back SOMETIME

Words & Music by THE DUNCAN SISTERS

Fox Trot Chorus

Sometime you'll want me, sometime you'll care, sometime you'll wish I were near, There'll come a day after

I've gone away, And my voice you'll long to hear,

Allegro moderato

Piano

VOICE

Ev'-ry time I try to use that telephone of mine,
Just an hour later I picked up the phone again,
There they were still up because I'm on a party line,

I got someone's number by mis-at it say. I'm going to complain,
Can you blame a guy for growling

take the other day,
if he's in a rush,
This is what I heard the party say.
When he hears some dizzy Dora gush.

CHORUS

Oh! you must come over, you must come over, we'll have such a wonderful time.

We're giving a party just for you, girls that you know,

Ruby and Blossom, and Ger-tie and Flo.

Oh! you must come over, you must come over, we'll have such a wonderful time.

You should have been with us on Saturday night,

Oh what a party why May was a sight.

Oh! you must come over, you must come over you're always the first.

I insist.

You Must Come Over Tonight 3 vite, The party starts at eight o'clock, the sweetest of afvite, I near for-got to tell you that the folks have gone a-fairs, I'm wear-ing my new lav-en-der to match the par-lor chairs, And way, We'll have the house all to our selves un-til the break of day. My!

dear-ie if you get a lit-tle bun on no-one cares, Oh! you must come o-Gawd! can you im-a-gine what the neigh-bors all will say, Oh! you must come over to-night. Oh! you night.

ver to-night. Oh! you night.
