Moderato

Back in the pines I am waiting,
Somehow the songbirds are calling,

Waiting for the time,
Calling you and me,

When the world you're in will prove untrue
And to the days when we were fond sweethearts

And I can claim you, girl of mine.
Now I'm waiting patiently.
Chorus

Tho' a hundred arms have held you,

And you've broken all their dreams,

Tho' you've forgotten those who cherished you,

In your wasted life of schemes,

Only A Butterfly 4
Tho' you've thrown away your treasures
And your whole life's been a lie,
Still to me you're a rose and I want you, God knows, Tho' you're only a butterfly.
Tho' a fly.
Have You Heard

IN THE LAND OF SWEET SIXTEEN

This song, written by one of America's greatest song writers, Geo. W. Meyer, who has written such world famous songs as "For Me and My Gal," Tuck Me To Sleep In My Old "Tucky Home," "Hiawatha's Melody," "Down Among The Sleepy Hills of Ten-Ten-Tennessee" and a score of others, is in fox trot tempo — and tells a beautiful love story in a beautiful melody.

CHORUS

It's simply grand, hand in hand in the land of Sweet Six-teen  Look back and see, there was you, there was me, on the village green  We were happier then little women and men

Dont you wish you were back there once again?  We used to play, every day just as gay as Kings and Queens  How quick time flies, and we don't realize what childhood means  But when we're
