Lady Of The Lake
Waltz Song

By JOSEPH M. DALY

One summer's day I met you where the water lilies grew,
My Lady of the Lake.

How sweet the day I met you under neath the heavens blue,
My Lady of the Lake.
eyes looked into mine and I just fell in love with you, They thrilled me, and they filled me with the strangest feeling And now I can't forget you for you drifted out of view, and left my heart to break But on the silent shore, I will keep my lone-ly vi-gil for my La-dy of the Lake, gain I'll keep my watch for you my La-dy of the Lake.

REFRAIN (Cantabile)

I'm wait-ing, just wait-ing while day-times and night-times are fly-ing, The winds call, the leaves fall, the sum-mer is dy-ing, but I'll not stop cry-ing, To find you, and bind you, Right close to a heart that is sigh ing, I'll search for you, and your birch canoe, My Lady of the Lake. Im Lake.
