Chorus

Little Boy Blue — He got those Little Boy Blues. — Because the horn that he had, — went to the bad, So he got a couple of dollars from his dear old dad. Then he travelled to town, — and how he hunted around,

Look For The Happy Ending

(David)

By BERT KALMAR
and HARRY RUBY

Moderato

Voice

(David) When they write a book or play, Its auth or dis guis es, Just what the end will be.

Piano

Fortune's smile will fade away, When trouble arises,

Still it ends happily, Life is like a book you'll find it full of surprises, Read it carefully, and—

Chorus

Look for the happy ending, Most stories end that way. In every tale a chapter appears, of sorrow and tears; But joy and laughter, follow after. Thru all the darkest pages,

You'll see some hopeful signs, So you must not despair,

— The happy ending is there, — If you will just read between the lines.
